

Calling for all
JEANS4JUSTICE

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

USE YOUR OLD JEANS TO SUPPORT

YOUR STANCE

AGAINST

DOMESTIC

AND SEXUAL

VIOLENCE

Now accepting & picking up “Old Jeans”

When: NOW until October 15th

Where: Zee A. Barron Student Union
Counseling Center (1st floor)

Time: 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Daily

To schedule a pick up contact: Renee’ Hall 621-4858
(Coordinator of Counseling Services)

Free ice cream cone & gift for the first 50 participants!

Coahoma Community College is an equal opportunity institution in accordance with civil rights and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or other factors prohibited by law in any of its educational programs, activities and employment opportunities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Michael Houston, Director of Human Resources/Coordinator for 504/ADA, Title IX Compliance Officer, Office #A100, Vivian M. Presley Administration Building, 3240 Friars Point Road, Clarksdale, Mississippi 38614, Phone: (662)621-4853, Email: mhouston@coahomacc.edu.