

Position:

Physical Therapy Technician

Job Duties and Responsibilities:

The therapy technician works closely with the medical staff. Lifting is required with the position as the tech will assist patients with walking, getting on and off exercise equipment and, in and out of wheel chairs. The technician will also monitor patient's exercise programs to ensure all exercises are completed. Facility and equipment cleaning between patient observations is also an important part of the job.

Skills Required:

Good people skills that allow successful management of multiple relationships within the work environment. The ability to relate with and motivate the patients is important. Lifting in the form of assisting patients is required. The most important skill is having a positive attitude, the desire to learn on the job, and being excited come to work.

Salary:

Compensation is based on experience and education level. The company does offer health and dental insurance.

Additional Information:

This position is also a great way to get the physical therapy observation hours required to attend Physical Therapy School.

Application procedure:

Email resumes to twindham.jr@att.net